

|     |  |
|-----|--|
| 6.3 | Technology, keeping pace with the world. |
|-----|--|

Teachers' use technology to support quality learning behaviours such as exploration, conjecture or collaboration

Students collect information from data probes, digital cameras, video recorders and the internet.

Students' are encouraged to present reports and results using a range of software.

ICT is used to increase student choice and flexibility with respect to their learning.

Simulation and knowledge specific information can be obtained from software.